Khalsa College Patiala Organizes Workshop on 'Cloud Computing: Services and Applications'

Punjab Times News
Patiala, August 31

 punjab times REPORT

The Computonics Club of Computer Science Department of Khalsa College Patiala organised a workshop on 'Cloud Computing: Services and Applications' for students. The objective of this workshop was to make the students aware about the increasing importance of cloud computing and also to inform them about the employment opportunities available in this field. The subject expert invited for this workshop was software engineer S. Gurdeep Singh from Solitaire Infosys. During this workshop Mr Singh told the students about the use of cloud computing and networking in different areas and also gave information about certification in this field. Along with this he also told the students about free cloud trial. College Principal Dr. Dharminder Singh Ubha appreciated the efforts made by the department and said that the information given to the students regarding new and innovative technologies will be helpful for them in future. Professor Sukhmeen Kaur, Head, Computer Department, said that the department will actively arrange such programs for the students to provide them high level technical education. Professor Inderbir Kaur, Convener, Computonics Club, welcomed other eminent personalities present on this occasion. She said that the workshops and seminars are organised by the club for the overall development of the students. Professor Jatinder Kaur thanked the guests.
