

One Day workshop

on

“Innovation in Software Development”

Computonics Club of PG Department of Computer Science organized One Day workshop on “Innovation in Software Development” on 27th February, 2019 by Er. Mandeep Singh from ZedStart Solutions, Patiala.

Er. Mandeep Singh comprehend the innovations in making software product development as it is one of the booming sectors of the IT Industry. Workshop described key activities in software development and explain the basics of an object-oriented approach to software development.

Participants List