

Ozone Day Celebration

On 16 September 2020, International Ozone Day was celebrated by the PG Dept. of Geography and Environmental Science where all the geography classes participated. Students from B.A. and B.A.(Hons.) Social Sciences classes gave presentations and had prepared power point presentation for the depiction of Ozone Hole in the atmosphere. HOD Dr. Gorakh Singh initiated the discussion and later on Prof. Amandeep Singh and Prof. Meenakshi also made students aware about the various environmental aspects. Students showed keen interest in the causes and effects of ozone hole on the earth. Students also discussed the ways and means to restrict the carbon emission and efforts to save our environment.
