

B. Sc. Hons. Agriculture Part 1 students visited Natural History Museum at Sector 10C at Chandigarh

Participants : 65 B. Sc. Hons. Agriculture Part 1 students

PG Department of Agriculture, GSSDGS, Khalsa College Patiala

PG Department of Agriculture, GSSDGS, Khalsa College, Patiala, Punjab planned one day education visit programme on dated 09.04.2019 at Museum Sector 10C at Chandigarh. There was Incharge officer of Museum talk about the Natural History Museum: The Exhibits in the museum covers 5000 years of Indian History from Indus valley civilisation to present day. It has an open air sculptural artworks on display. Museum is organised into 5 galleries Evolution of Non gallery- It models the fossils and dioramas of home species like Neanderthals, Homo erectus etc. Dinosaurs of India gallery- The gallery take to the Mesozoic era to Triassic period to the evolution of Jurassic period. Evolution of Life gallery- It depicts the gradual transformation of earth, stretching over billions of years, into a place conducive to hold and nurture life. Redefining the past- Fossils are on display from Masal area. Our Mother Earth Gallery- It displays massive chunks of rocks of various types and ages. Major Attraction 2 Storeyed Cyclorama- Depicting evolution of Life on Earth Dinosaur Gallery- Real fossils Evolution of Man from hominid cousins and Ancestors Collection of Astronomy and geology.

