

In order to motivate the student's spirit toward research. Our department has decided to introduce project work to a few PG and UG students.

Research Projects Completed by Students of Khalsa College Patiala

Punjab Times News
Patiala, March 14

 NEWS

Students of Khalsa College Patiala's Post Graduate Chemistry Department today submitted their research projects after successfully completing them. These research projects of four students of M.Sc. Chemistry were completed under the guidance of Dr. Monica Bansal, Dr. Rupinder Dhir and Dr. Ratanpal Singh. These projects are related to Organic Synthesis, Nano Chemistry and Polymer Chemistry. On this occasion college principal Dr. Dharminder Singh

Students of the Post Graduate Department of Chemistry on completion of their research projects. Dr. Dharminder Singh Ubha, Deputy Principal Dr. Jasleen Kaur, Dr. Ravinderjit Singh Dean Research with Dr. Anju Khullar, Head, Department of Chemistry and other teachers.

Ubha, while congratulating members of Khalsa College, research work which not only the students and the department Patiala always encourage enhances the talents of the staff the students for pursuing students but also helps in improvement of the society due to the research work done by them. The head of the chemistry department, Dr. Anju Khullar said that the basic research work was started by the students through the efforts of the department. The students have worked very hard and diligently for the projects. The students also thanked the head of the department Dr. Anju Khullar and the supervising teachers for providing a conducive environment for research. Among others, Deputy Principal Dr. Jasleen Kaur and Dr. Ravinderjit Singh, Dean Research also congratulated the students.