

Educational visit:

An Educational visit was conducted by department of Psychology on August 8-9, 2019 at Navjivani School of special education, Patiala.

Outcomes of visit:

- Students able to understand the behavioral aspects of disabled children.
- They also seem to diagnose and find out solutions of cognitive, affective and connative behavioral problems of intellectually disabled children.
- They also enable to diagnose symptoms of autism and spectrum disorder.
- Students know about various activities and psychotherapies done for intellectually disabled children.

