

General Shivdev Singh Diwan Gurbachan Singh
Khalsa College Patiala

CULTURAL POLICY

General Shivdev Singh Diwan Gurbachan Singh Khalsa College Patiala is a supreme institution of quality higher education running under the management of Shiromani Gurdwara Prabandhak Committee, Sri Amritsar Sahib, the apex body of the Sikhs. Students bring glory to the college not only in academics and sports but also in the field of cultural activities. For the last fourteen years, the college has been consistently winning championship beating all colleges of Patiala district and for the last four years the college is the overall champion of the university by beating more than 270 colleges of Punjabi University Patiala. The cultural activities connect youth to their cultural roots and build their overall personality. The institution is committed to build a wholesome personality of its students.

1. Objective

The objective of policy of cultural activities is to develop not only overall personality of the students but also to accept positively and patiently the victory as well as the defeat. In addition to this the excellent quality of working as a team is also the objective. Another objective is to connect the students to their cultural roots.

 1

