

GENERAL SHIVDEV SINGH DIWAN GURBACHAN SINGH KHALSA COLLEGE PATIALA

REPORT TO ACTIVITES (2016-2021)

PTA CELL REPORT 2016-17

The first PTA meet of this session was organized on 14-10-2016. Approximately 180 parents participated in this PTM. The parents were informed regarding the MST marks, attendance and co-curricular activities of the students. They were also told about the measures taken for personality development of the students. The parents appreciated the progressive and visionary steps taken by the administration.

The Second PTA meet of this session was organized on 30-03-2017. Approximately 82 parents participated in this PTM. The parents were informed regarding the MST marks, attendance and co-curricular activities of the students. They were also told about the measures taken for personality development of the students. The parents appreciated the initiations taken by the college administration for all round development of the students.

PTA CELL REPORT 2017-18

The first PTA meet of this session was organized on 10-11-2017. Approximately 157 Parents participated in it. The parents were informed regarding the MST marks attendance and co-curricular activities of the students. They were also told about the measures taken for personality development of the students. The parents appreciated the progressive and visionary steps taken by the administration.

The Second PTA meet of this session was organized on 12-04-2018. Approximately 124 Parents participated in it. The parents were informed regarding the MST marks attendance and co-curricular activities of the students. They were also told about the measures taken for personality development of the students. The parents appreciated the initiations taken by the college administration for all round development of the students.

PTA CELL REPORT

2018-19

The first PTA meet of this session was organized on 16-11-2018. Approximately 157 Parents participated in it. The parents were informed regarding the MST marks attendance and co-curricular activities of the students. They were also told about the measures taken for personality development of the students. The parents appreciated the progressive and visionary steps taken by the administration.

PTA cell organized guest Lecture on “Healthy Parenting and Stress Management in Youth” by Er. Parkash Sujay (Acharya Mitra) on 27-03-2019. Approximately 54 Parents participated in it. During this lecture the Acharya ji given the tools to understand the psychology of young youth, which helps them for the healthy parenting.

PTA cell organized guest Lecture on “Health and Well Being” by Head and Associate Professor Dr. Balbir Kaur (Department of Fashion Designing and Home Science, Khalsa College, Patiala) on 08-04-2019. Approximately 48 Parents participated in it. The main motive of this lecture was health and hygiene.

PTA cell organized an Exhibition dedicated to “550th Birth Anniversary of Guru Nanak Dev Ji” on 12-04-2019. Approximately 87 Parents participated in it. The exhibition inculcated human values among youth from life history of Guru Nanak Dev Ji.

The Second PTA meet of this session was organized on 12-04-2019. Approximately 89 Parents participated in this PTM. The parents were informed regarding the MST marks attendance and co-curricular activities of the students. They were also told about the measures taken for personality development of the students. The parents appreciated the initiations taken by the college administration for all round development of the students.

PTA CELL REPORT 2019-20

The first PTA meet of this session was organized on 8-11-2019. Approximately 114 Parents participated in this PTM. The parents were informed regarding the MST marks attendance and co-curricular activities of the students. They were also told about the measures taken for personality development of the students. The parents appreciated the progressive and visionary steps taken by the administration.

A guest faculty lecture was organized by PTA cell on 28/02/2020 at Bhai Nand Lal Auditorium. An eminent speaker, Dr Satish Kumar Verma, Former Director, Youth Welfare Department, Punjabi University Patiala, delivered a lecture on a topic “Healthy Parenting And Indispensable Factors Involved in The Guidance of Youth” . Dr. Verma gave many valuable tips to the parents for raising the young minds in an efficient manner so that they become a good citizens and role models for the society.

PTA CELL-REPORT (2020-21)

One PTA meet was organized in each semester. The meet was organized after the results of MST,s were declared. The purpose of this was that parents know about the performance of their wards in their respective classes, both PTM organized in online mode due to COVID-Conditions.

So after the MST,s were taken, evaluated and their results got consolidated, the PTA-Cell was organized first PTM on 20/11/2020.Approximately 1100 parents participated in this PTM,1056 Feed-Back Performa's were filled by the parents and 361 suggestions were given by the parents.

Second PTM was organized on 23/04/2021, 634 parents were participated, 491 suggestions were given by the parents and 1573 Feed-Back Back Performa's were filled by the parents during second online PTM.